

Experience:

8/99-8/03 Chinle Comprehensive Health Care Facility Chinle, AZ
Indian Health Service
Physician, Internal Medicine and Pediatrics

- Inpatient and outpatient pediatric and internal medicine clinical care
- Director, Pinon Field Clinic
- Chair, Infection Control Committee
- Coordinator, adult cardiology services, including interrogation of pacemakers, reading of Holter monitors, and facilitating echocardiogram services
- Medical Coordinator, Epidemic Response Team
- Coordinator, medical student and resident rotations at Chinle Hospital
- Co-coordinator, pediatric cardiology clinic

Residency:

6/95-6/99 Harvard Combined Medicine and Pediatrics Program Boston, MA
Resident

- Internal medicine at Brigham & Women's Hospital
- Pediatrics at Boston Children's Hospital
- Primary Care clinic serving Hispanic population in a culturally and linguistically competent environment
- Clinical and epidemiologic research in Multi-Drug Resistant Tuberculosis in Lima, Peru with Partners in Health

Education:

9/91-5/95 The Johns Hopkins School of Medicine Baltimore, MD

- Graduated in the top 10% of class
- Founded Center for International Health Education to provide medical students with exposure to international health and human rights issues
- Founded Community Impact, an umbrella organization coordinating over 20 community service opportunities for medical students
- Conducted research on diarrheal diseases on the Apache Reservation in Whiteriver, Arizona, with the Johns Hopkins Project
- Coordinated with UNICEF and ICRC (Red Cross) a national exhibit of children's art from nations at war to examine the psychosocial implications of low- and high-intensity conflict on the worldviews of children. Participating countries included Guatemala, former Yugoslavia, the Middle East, Cambodia, South Africa, Northern Ireland, and Harlem, NYC.
- Co-Coordinator of The International Health Task Force with AMSA

9/85-6/90 Harvard University Cambridge, MA

- Bachelor of Arts, Magna cum laude, with double major in Chemistry and Religious Studies
- Co-Founded Saint Paul's Church's drop-in center for the homeless
- Staff Member, First Congregational Church homeless shelter

Professional Certifications:

Board Certified in Internal Medicine, 1999
Board Certified in Pediatrics, 1999
Massachusetts MD license #158412
PALS, ACLS, BLS, NRP, ATLS (partial)

International Health:

Behrhorst Partners for Development
President, Board of Directors

- Guatemalan non-governmental organization providing hospital and outpatient clinical services, rural health development projects, microcredit income-generation projects, and health promoter/traditional birth attendant training to Mayan communities in the Guatemalan Highlands

Mayaworks
Fundraiser

- Guatemalan crafts cooperative providing fair wages and scholarships to young women.

Honors and Awards:

Alpha Omega Alpha
Phi Beta Kappa nomination
Three annual Boston Children's Hospital awards for community service and activism
Leadership and community service award from Johns Hopkins Medical School at graduation
Three annual Alumni Association awards for community service at Johns Hopkins University
Paul Revere Humanitarian Leadership Award at Harvard University
Two annual Lamont Community Service Awards at Harvard University

Languages:

Spanish - conversational
Cantonese - conversational